

Creative Writing Competition (1st trimester 2010/11)

Jury des Englischwettbewerbs mit Isabelle Kruchten (2.v.l.), Andra Brunzema (3.v.l.), Joanna Reichert (4.v.l.) und Sara Hemmerling (5.v.l.)

... and the winner is ... Andra Brunzema (1eL2) ist (wie schon im letzten Trimester!) die Gewinnerin des Englisch-Kreativschreibwettbewerbs des DFG im dritten Trimester. Sie konnte erneut die Mehrheit der Jurystimmen auf sich vereinen. Die Jury aus Englischlehrern prämierte diesmal die besten eingesandten Texte, die auf Grundlage des vorgegebenen Themas What money can't buy... entstanden sind. In Anwesenheit der Jurymitglieder Frau Becker, Frau Hawke-Pasterkamp, Mme Reysset, M. Grannec und Herr Pfefferle wurden die vom Schulfördervereins ALFA gestifteten Preise überreicht. ... To be continued in the 2nd trimester!

What Money can't buy

*To hear «I love You»
Once in our lives,
A happy heart
And happy days.
Love, Money can't buy.*

*Brothers and Sisters,
Mother and Father,
Go through everything
together.
Family, Money can't buy.*

*They help you,
They listen to you,
You can trust them,
And they can trust you.*

Friends, money can't buy.

*You share it with everyone,
It's a happy moment,
Or a funny one,
When it sounds through the house.
Laughter, Money can't buy.*

*They run down our faces,
While happiness or sadness,
Quiet or loud,
And sometimes without a reason.
Tears, Money can't buy.*

*A smile on our lips,
Liking everything we see,
Want to jump around,
Acting like mad.
Happiness, Money can't buy.*

*Love and Hate,
Birth and Death,
Peace and War,
See a lot while we live.
Experiences, Money can't buy.*

*The first ever love,
First kiss and first hug,
The friends we had,
And a day in our lives.
Memories, Money can't buy.*

*They make our souls
Leave wherever we are,
They go forward and backward
make us happy or sad.
Thoughts, money can't buy.*

*Everything important in life,
That's what Money can't buy.*
